Per G.S.SINGHVI, CJ

In this petition, the petitioner has made the following substantive prayer:

> "It is therefore respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction, more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus to direct the second and third Respondents to execute necessary conveyance deed, at the rate in parity with M/s. Dulichand Silk Mills Limited, in favour of the Petitioner, in respect of the area as applied for by the Petitioner, by declaring the action of the Respondents 2 and 3 in fixing higher rate per square metre when compared to the said M/s. Dulichand Silk Mills Limited and not allotting land as applied for as discriminatory, arbitrary and violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.
>
> It is further respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to direct the Respondents to consider the case of the Petitioner in parity with that of M/s. Dulichand Silk Mills Limited by allotting the land as applied for at Industrial Park in Indrakaran Village, Medak District, at the rate of Rs.100/- per square metre and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case".

Shri G. Ashwin Reddy appearing for Shri B. Chandrasen Reddy, learned counsel for the petitioner says that he has been instructed to withdraw the writ petition.

Learned Government Pleader for Industries and Commerce and Shri K.V. Simhadri say that they do not have any objection.

In view of the above, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.

As a sequel to dismissal of the writ petition as withdrawn, WPMP Nos. 15459, 16259 and 22591 of 2007 filed by the petitioner are disposed of as infructuous.
